

Brave

(Pixar, 2012)

About 10 or so minutes in, Queen Elinor tells the triplets to eat their haggis. One of the triplets puts it in the other's face and the other one puffs up his cheeks and g*s.

A little later on, when Wee Dingwall makes the bullseye, his father moons the other two men. Lord Macintosh kneels down and g*s.

Later, when Merida gives Elinor the cake, Elinor tastes it and her cheeks puff up. She drinks something to wash it down and then goes with Merida upstairs. She stops on the way up and says she feels woozy and needs to go to her room. The Lords stop her on her way and she is holding her stomach and she is sort of slurring her speech, clearly not well. She gets to bed and asks Merida what was in the cake. She moans and falls off of the bed. This whole scene had me nervous the first time, but she does not v*.
