

Four Christmases

(New Line Cinema, 2008)

When Kate's Mom's side of the family are giving their verbal presents, Courtney gives Kate the baby to hold and says to check the diaper. The baby v*s on Kate and Brad g*s a lot and says he is going to get s* if he doesn't get away. After this scene, Kate is cleaning herself up in the bathroom and still has some in her hair. The v* was pretty harsh for a baby to have done, so I would close your eyes as soon as Kate is given the baby.

At the end of the movie the same thing happens again while Kate and Brad are being interviewed by the news.
