

Dead Poets Society

(Touchstone, 1989)

A little over 1 hour and 48 minutes in, after Todd is woken up by his tearful friends, they walk in the snow. Todd v*s and there is audio and visual. I would just skip the scene where they are in the snow.

Also, I just want to include a trigger warning for suicide. It is not explicitly shown but it is heavily implied and talked about from about 1 hour and 43 minutes until the end of the movie.
