

Rocketman

(Paramount, 2019)

This was submitted.

Right at the beginning Elton is talking about the reason he's in rehab and mentions he is bulimic and later in the film, around 1 hour and 41 minutes in, he is shown v*ing. It's all audio, he's just over a toilet. It's right after Bernie finishes singing goodbye yellow brick road and Elton screams "you fing idiot!"

Also there is a part where Elton is shown with a tube down his throat (around 1 hour and 22 min through 1 hour and 23 minutes) and he looks at whats coming out.

Other than those couple of things, there's a few spots where you think someone will v* but they never do!
