

The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society

(StudioCanal, 2018)

In the first few minutes it shows 5 people walking down a path when they get stopped by a Gestapo. A few moments after that the older man in the scene (who is clearly intoxicated) v*s all over the Gestapo's shoes and the ground. It's quite graphic and was very triggering. The scene includes the moment before, audio, and a lot of visual with multiple shots of the v*.
