

Finding Dory

About 15 minutes and 45 seconds in Marlin says “totally s*” twice and Crush says “I know isn’t it great?” And Marlin says, “No! I’m going to be totally s*!” Then Crush says, “its the California current dude, its got some gnarly chops. Surfs up dude! Dude if you’re h* just do me a solid, head to the back of the shell, lean out, and go for distance.” Squirt says, “we call that feeding the fishes!” During all of the Marlin is groaning a little. The scene continues and then Dory, Marlin, and Nemo are dropped off of the current and Marlin falls down offscreen. Dory and Nemo wave to the turtles and Crush calls out “good luck feeding the fishes!” Marlin returns onto the screen looking weary and says “too late, already fed.” This implies that he was s* offscreen. No visual and no audio, however the way Marlin says it could possibly be triggering as he sounds exhausted. The scene moves on immediately.
